THE FELLOWSHIP

You design your own plan of professional and personal development customized to fit your needs and personality. Seminars, retreats, coaching, or any form of professional development that helps you grow as a community leader will be considered.

Fellows may apply for a grant of up to $5,000 to be completed in a 12-month period. Additionally, the Fellows will participate in quarterly group sessions with a selected consultant and York Federal Fellows founder Bob Pullo.

YORK FEDERAL FELLOWS
York County Community Foundation

APPLICATION PROCESS

Qualifying candidates must submit an application by September 7, 2018. If you are unsure if you qualify or have questions about the application, please contact Elyse Byrnes at 717.848.3733 or ebyrnes@yccf.org.

Find more information at www.yccf.org/York-Federal-Fellows

YORK COUNTY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION
14 West Market Street
York, PA 17401
717.848.3733
www.yccf.org

LEAD INSPIRE INNOVATE

YORK FEDERAL FELLOWS
York County Community Foundation

A FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM IN NONPROFIT COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP

“THIS WAS TRULY A LIFE CHANGING EXPERIENCE.”

-YFF Alum

Back Row L to R: Christy Renjilian, Child Care Consultants; Mary Studzinski, Pennsylvania Immigration Resource Center; Carolyn Warman, York Federal Fellows co-facilitator.

Front Row L to R: Bob Pullo, founder of the York Federal Fellows program; Joyce Santiago, York Area Development Corporation; Deb Gogniat, Healthy York County Coalition; Todd Fogdall, Appell Center for the Performing Arts.

The Fellowship will:

- Strengthen the ability of experienced nonprofit executives to lead their organization
- Strengthen the connections among York's nonprofit executives
- Make York County nonprofits stronger
- Meet community needs

SELECTION CRITERIA

Applicants must be current executive directors, CEO's or in a position of strategic leadership in nonprofit organizations, educational institutions or government in York County.

YORK FEDERAL FELLOWS
York County Community Foundation

The York Federal Fellows is the legacy of the York Financial Corporation and York Federal Savings and Loan. The York Federal Foundation gifted its assets to York County Community Foundation in 2005 so that local charities would continue to benefit from the York Federal Foundation.

PRIORITY APPLICANTS SHOULD

- Demonstrate strategic leadership within one's field
- Have a number of years in leadership served in both past and current positions
- Have plans that meaningfully increase capacity as a community leader
- Have plans that add value to your organization and the community